MESSAGE FROM THE

Reunion Chairs

Time to join SJC friends and classmates to renew "friendships links!"

Reunion 2010 will be headquartered at the Wyndham Gettysburg, a full-service hotel within an easy drive of Emmitsburg.

This year's events begin with registration and an opening social hour on Thursday, April 8th. On Friday morning breakfast is "on your own." You can rise early and meet classmates at the 1863 Restaurant in the Wyndham or join friends later for brunch. Whatever your morning choice, Friday's reunion activities will take place in Emmitsburg. You may choose to have lunch in the dining hall of the National Fire Academy. Campus tours will leave from outside the dining hall in the early afternoon. While you wait, take a minute to scan the brick walkways outside the chapel. You'll recognize some names. Tea with the Sisters begins at 2:30 pm in the Provincial House. Many of the college's alumnae are Daughters of Charity. They and former members of the college's faculty who reside at the Provincial House will be our Alumnae Association's honored guests at the tea.

At 4 o'clock, the Golden Jubilarian Class of 1960 will coordinate a special Mass at the chapel on the college campus. Attendance is open to all, space permitting. Friday evenings are reserved for class dinners. Remember, our "Pines" area at the Wyndham is a great place to gather and reminisce after you return from dinner.

On Saturday morning, a traditional breakfast buffet will be served at the Wyndham. Alumnae can return to the campus for a picnic lunch at Tom's Creek. President and Mrs. Thomas Powell of Mount St. Mary's University will open their home to SJC alumnae for a tea at 2:30 pm. The Alumnae Memorial Mass begins at 4 pm in the Basilica of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton. From 6-7 pm, we will all gather for a social hour at the Wyndham, followed by the annual Alumnae Banquet at 7:00 pm. Class pictures will be taken during the social hour. On Sunday, a brunch beginning at 8:30 am will precede the SJC Alumnae Annual Meeting.

The "Pines" is open throughout the reunion. Allegra's Alley, aka, the Reunion store, will also be open at convenient times. Don't forget to purchase some raffle tickets. The basket raffle gets bigger and better every year.

You must register for both the Reunion and your accommodations. Please fill out the Reunion registration form and remit to the Alumnae Office. Rooms are being held at the Wyndham until 5 PM on Tuesday, March 9, 2010. Please call the hotel to reserve your room.

See you in April!
Maureen McPartland Smith, Chair Reunion 2010 and Karen Mattscheck, 2010 Co-chair & 2011 Reunion Chair

Have a Great Time!

The BASKET RAFFLE is a favorite feature at SJC Alumnae Association reunions. We would like to expand this fund-raiser and need your help. Would you like to create and donate a basket to this popular fundraising activity? We invite SJC classes, clubs, individuals and teams of alumnae to participate.

Each basket focuses on a specific theme and the theme guides the articles arranged in decorated containers. The term "basket" is used liberally since any container can be used. Fill trays, tote bags, plastic organizers, and even colorful pails with a variety of related items. The minimum value for the basket and its contents is $50.

If you would like to participate, please contact the Alumnae Office, sjcaa@doc.org, or Maureen Smith, Reunion Chair, c-msmith@mindspring.com or 770-971-0920 and tell us what you are planning.
